

Suggestions for Pre - Pos Congress Tours

Funchal - Madeira Island "Admirable of Nature"

Madeira is the pearl of the Atlantic and a floating tropical garden. With its unique scenery and marvellous climate, Madeira is the perfect place for a holiday at any time of the year!

Funchal, the capital is a picturesque port city with a tempting choice of restaurants along its seaside esplanades. An adventurous way to explore this wonderful island is on guided walk along the "Levadas"-man made irrigation channels which carry water from high in the mountains down through the many farms to the fields and villages lying below .

If you are feeling more active, you can enjoy golf, tennis and the chance to scuba dive around underwater caves and wrecks of sunken ships.

A thrilling "Toboggan ride" will sweep you down the mountain from Monte to Funchal.

Algarve - South Portugal

The golden sandy beaches and gentle lapping waters give the Algarve more of a Mediterranean than Atlantic flavour. Warmed in water by air from Africa and cooled in Summer by breezes from the Atlantic, the Algarve enjoys almost 3.000 hours of sunshine all year round.

Tine bays, coves and isolated beaches are separated by extraordinary rocky who's red and gold's are magnificently accentuated at sunset. Elsewhere, soft and sandy beaches spread out invitingly for miles.

The Algarve has something to offer to everyone: tempting golf courses on which international tournaments are played, tennis courts and riding, and every water sport you can think of.

At night visit one of the many glittering casinos or clubs, or simply sit outside beneath the stars and sample some freshly caught seafood.
